CAPTURE OF REPUBLICAN MEET-ING BY THE LAMBITES.

The Leader of the Other Side Not Losing Any Sleep-Work of Restoration After the Fire-The Nash-

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 6.-(Spo cial.)-Coionel H. deB. Clay, the Republican county chairman of Warwick, is not losing any sleep over the result of the district meeting the Lamb forces captured at Ivy Precinct yesterday afternoon. TURNED THEIR GUNS.

The Lamb men turned the guns on Colonel Clay, and a resolution condemning his action as a disloyal Republican and calling for a mass-meeting to reorganize the party was adopted. The meeting was composed exclusively of colored men, and was called for the purpose of nominating candidates for Supervisor, Justices of the Peace, Overseer of the Poor, and Con-Colonel Clay has been the Repub lican chairman of Warwick county for the last thirteen years, and has been recognized as the chief executive by State-Chairman Lamb and the State Committee. As to his loyalty to Republican principles, his friends say there is not the elightest doubt, he having been a lifelong Republican. The charge preferred him is similar to the one lodged against National-Committeeman Bowden being claimed that both supported Whaley, the Sound-Money candidate for Congress, over Dr. Richard A. Wise, the Republican nominee, who was recognized by both the National and Congressional Republican committees. Since he has been at the head of the Republican party in this county Colonel Clay is said to have seen active and hard service of yesterday's meeting, and say it was a victory. Colonel Clay's friends, on the other hand, deny this. The work of putting in the plant will begin immediately, and it will be in opera-tion by the time the new piers are completed. Neither the city nor the rallway company will suffer any fil-effects from the fire. On the other hand, both will eventually be benefited.

WILLIAMSBURG.

Visit of Members of the Third Army Corps-Personal Notes.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., May 6.—(Special.)—About 100 members of the Third Army Corps arrived here this morning in special train from Chamberlin's, Old oint. Many of them were accompanied Point. Many of them were accompanied by their wives and daughters. The party took conveyances and were driven to Fort Magruder, one mile below town, where they spent some time going over the fort and the adjacent fields, where the battle of Williamsburg was fought the 5th of May, 1862—a day so well remembered by many a Confederate and Union soldier. This organization is a very wealthy one, and until recently was composed entirely of officers. It has been the custom of the Third Army Corps, which was organized on the battle-field during the war, to hold their reunions on the anniversary of the battle of Williamsburg (the 5th of May), this being the first battle in which they took part. More than the usual interest was attached to the annual banquet of the corps last night, as it was the first affair of its kind that has ever been held in the South by the organization. Letters of resret were read from Governor O'Ferrali and Mayor Wyndom R. Mayo, of Norfolk. Among the visitors to-day were General Daniel Sickles, New York; General C. H. T. Collis, New York; Colonel M. J. Foote, Washington; Major D. W. Gould, Massachusetts; Colonel Moore, president Third Corps Union Association: General Henry E. Tremain, New York; General Chaney McKeever, Washington; Colonel E. G. Leonard, Newark, N. The visitors were well pleased with their trip, and Colonel Foote, with whom the writer conversed, said: "Your town is just beautiful, and I shall return with my wife for a longer visit." The entire party was made up of elegant people, who will always find a welcome to Virginia's ancient capital.

Rev. W. J. King, a graduate of the Union Seminary of Virginia and a postgraduate of Princeton College, N. Charles City and New Kent, respectively, on the first and third Sundays.

Mr. Luther Warren left last evening for Hampden-Sidney College to attend the annual intercollegiate oratorical contest, which comes off to-night in the college hall.

Mr. Alva E. Smith, who has been since last fall engaged in the drug business in Covington, Va., will return home shortly, Mr. Smith will be most cordially welcomed by the members of Castoria Ciub. Mr. J. F. Hubbard, Commonwealth's Attorney of York, was here to-day preparing some matters for the Circuit Court, which meets the month.

Other V. M. I. Notes. LEXINGTON, VA., May 6.-(Special.)-Colonel David Price, commandant of the corps of cadets at the Virginia Military Institute, offered at the beginning of target practice a silver button to those cadets who made the best per cent, as marksmen at 200, 300, and 500 yards. Colonel Price has announced that the following cadets have qualified as marksmen, having made more than the minimum per cent, at the above-named ranges: Albert Dockery, Mississippi; C. C. Schoen, Virginia; J. G. Penn, Jr., Virginia; W. A. McNeill, Virginia; S. Foster, Texas; S. H. Essley, West Virginia; R. L. Doble, Virginia; M. W. Gwin, California; S. H. Hurt, Virginia; J. D. Taylor, Florida; C. F. Bedwell, Ohio. These buttons will be worn on the coats at school, and afterwards will be kept as badges of marksmanship. About 7,600 cartridges have been used at target-practice, and before it ends between 1,000 and 1,500 more will have been used. This practice has in no way interfered with the regular spring drills or with the studies. get practice a silver button to those

APPRENTICE MISSING.

Charged with Secreting Him-Coming Norfolk Races.

NORFOLK, VA., May 6 .- (Special.)-John Roberts, about 18 years of age, holding the position of apprentice navigator on the China-bound ship Cambrian King, has been missing for about ten days, and this morning Captain Hansord, of the vessel, had before the Police Court a seamen's boarding-house solicitor, named Daniel Croney, on the charge of secreting the boy, with the hope of reward. The accused was sent on to the grand jury, Young Roberts is from Wales. Stonewail Camp, Confederate Veterans,

The spring races of the Norfolk Driving Park and Fair Association bid fair to eclipse any previous event on Virginia turf. The improvements at the park have been completed, and all is no readiness for the spring meet, which takes place on the 18th to the 21st. The build-ings destroyed by the February fire have all been replaced with handsome and substantial structures. The list of entries, which will remain open until the 11th instant, already bears the names and pedigrees of some noted thoroughbreds. The prizes will aggregate more than $8,000.

Card from Mr. J. W. Harris. Fredericksburg, Va., May 3, 1897.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Your paper of yesterday made a mistake in reference to myself. It states that I went to Staunton instructed a gold man and voted for Bryan.

I went to Staunton uninstructed and cast a solid vote for the city for the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver without waiting for the consent of other nations. I know that I was per fectly justifiable, as it was stated when the meeting passed the sound-money resolutions that they were not instruc-tions to the delegates, and so published in our city papers.

I was the only delegate from here in our city papers.

I was the only delegate from here who went to Staunton, out of seven that were elected, and I have never had cause to regret casting a solid vote.

In 1990 we will have no trouble to get a solid delegation from Fredericksburg that will go to the convention and will rejoice in having the privilege to vote as I did in 1898. Your correspondent further states that I have been working hard for the legislative honor. This is incorrect. I haven't done any hard work hard for the legislative honor. This is incorrect, I haven't done any hard work along that line. All that I have done was very easy. I have said that as far as known at this time my name will be presented to the convention, but if defeated, defeat will be accepted in the kindest spirit, and I will stand firm for the principles laid down in the Demo-cratic platform of 1893.
